

I fell that the no call list should bbe kept in wisconsin, it makes me wonder what the bank association has to gain if the law is just covered federally instead of by the state. I think the federal government keeps a close enough eye on us and that there are certian things that we can take care of ourselves in this matter.

sincerely, sherri spranger